

Insured e-Signature Process via E-mail

1. Insured needs to click on the “Access your Application” button in the e-mail received
 - a. Note: If nothing pops up, then there is a pop-up blocker turned on in the insured’s web browser. The insured will need to go into their browser settings to turn off the pop-up blocker.

- 2. Insured enters in their pin (typically last 4 of their SSN)

- 3. See instructions in the screenshot below.
 - a. Note: Insured MUST click on Review Your Application in order to proceed. It will pop up a new window showing their application. Again, pop-up blocker will need to be off for this to open.

The screenshot shows the OneAmerica eSignature process page. It includes a 'Welcome' section, a 'Welcome, Gypsy Lady,' greeting, and a section titled 'eSignature Disclosures and Consent'. The page contains several paragraphs of text, including a list of terms and conditions. A 'Review Your Application' button is visible. Three red arrows point to specific elements with text boxes: 'Step 1: Client must click on Review Your Application' points to the button; 'Step 2: Client needs to Check that they agree with the disclosure' points to the 'I Agree' button; and 'Step 3: Click "I Agree" or "I Disagree"' points to the 'I Disagree' button.

- 4. Insured will need to put a check mark next to their name, enter in the city they are signing at, make sure the state is correct, and click on "Apply eSignature" or "Decline eSignature" to finish the process.

Apply e-Signature

I, Gypsy Lady

understand that there are several places within the Application and its related documents where my signature will be affixed. I have read each of the statements and agreements associated with my signature. I agree to be bound by those statements and agreements.

Please enter the city and state where you are signing the application.
